

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Telecorp sign an agreement with the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada (Ontario) Inc.

Barrie, ON, March 31, 2008

The Retail Merchants' Association of Canada (Ontario) Inc. (RMA) and Telecorp announced today their establishment of a mutual agreement. This joint venture will allow the RMA to offer Telecorp's products and services within their organization, to their roster of member's at a choice price point and give RMA capabilities of branding the products and services in their own name.

The RMA will now play a key role in making the Telecorp's Family of products available to it's members, through a broad spectrum of marketplaces which will in turn umbrella a great deal of Ontario's retail businesses in their entirety.

"RMA is pleased to present this new program to its members. It will enhance our member's ability to market their product or service at their own convenience." said Jacqueline Burns, Vice President of Retail Merchants' Association of Canada (Ontario) Inc.

The TELECORP On Demand Software Solutions includes state-of-the-art CRM capabilities in addition to and including; Voice, Fax and Email Broadcasting, Appointment Reminders, Customizable Survey Broadcasting and the companies' latest addition to this system, which will be released in the fall of 2006, is Text Message Broadcasting tool as well.

Telecorp's affiliation with the RMA will give the retail market access to a host of TELECORP products through their own association. This agreement now gives the ability for RMA members to obtain sales, marketing and customer service tools that were up to now, either not affordable or they were unavailable to the retail marketplace.

"Telecorp is very excited to have entered into this agreement with the RMA. We truly believe that our combined efforts and affiliations will be of great assistance and benefit to RMA members in their various retail marketplaces," said Paul Phillips, President of Telecorp Inc.

About RMA, The RMA is run by retailers for retailers, and offers a broad range of programs designed to keep independent retailers strong and profitable.
